

Online Booking Instructions

Please use the online registration system if you want to book an outdoor court or sign-up for a group lesson. Please follow the instructions below. Indoor courts and private lessons are not available online for East Potomac Tennis at this time. Please call for indoor courts and private lessons. Please check back for updates to our software and we thank you for your support.

- Sign in and log on. If you are not a member, please register by clicking on join now
- Click on “Sign up as Member” button – membership is currently free
- Select East Potomac Tennis – please note that you can only register for lessons and court time with the home location you first select. For example, if you select East Potomac and want to sign up for courts at Rock Creek, you will not be able to. You will have to complete another registration for Rock Creek Tennis Center.
- Select “Open Ended” membership
- Read the waiver and check off the “Accept” and “I Agree” boxes
- Fill out contact information accurately – we do not spam or send out e-mails! We need contact info for emergency situations
- For payment information – please select credit card information. DO NOT select banking info as your transaction in the next steps will not go through
- Select login id and password
- You will then be asked to login – login
- To sign-up for a court please select “Scheduler” and select your desired time and date
- To sign-up for a group lesson please select “Program Registration” and select the program, level, and date of your lesson
